

ENGLISH LANGUAGE + IRISH CULTURE

Course Outline

Our English + Irish Culture Course helps students improve their overall English level while gaining a real taste of Ireland. Alongside language lessons, students take part in classroom sessions on Irish culture and enjoy social and cultural workshops, offering a true immersion into Irish life and traditions.

Course Objective

This course combines language learning with cultural discovery. Participants improve their English through an integrated skills approach while also exploring key aspects of Irish culture, including music, literature, mythology, history, and food through specially designed sessions.

In the mixed General English lessons, the focus is on listening, pronunciation, and spoken interaction, ensuring steady progress in communication skills. The result is a rich academic, cultural, and social experience, the perfect way to improve your English while experiencing life in Cork.
